Message from the Mayor

At a recent May council meeting, the City of Sharonville recognized the Top 20 of the graduating class of Princeton High School. It is always a delight to congratulate these young men and women on this significant achievement. As they prepare for the next chapter of their lives, they also were looking forward to a summer of activity and leisure. Fortunately, the City of Sharonville is here to provide opportunities for employment and fun throughout the summer months.

Our city is full of people whose first job was as a seasonal employee in our Recreation Department (myself included – proud former Camp Sharonville counselor). That department is now under new leadership. Recently, I appointed Michael Blomer to head our Parks and Recreation Department. Michael is certainly no stranger to our community or this department having worked here for the past decade. He brings great enthusiasm and talent to the job and is ready to make your year-round experience of Sharonville Parks and Recreation an enjoyable one. He will be doing so without another one of our fabulous team who has helped to manage young pool employees over the years. Aquatics Manager Linda Reynolds retired from the City in early June. She has planned her final pool openings for our City. I and the entire City staff wish Linda all the best wherever retirement takes her.

Keeping everybody safe during these summer months whether on the job or at play, is always a priority of the City. I am pleased to welcome new leadership to our Sharonville Police Department as they continue to take on this awesome responsibility. Please join me in congratulating Police Chief Steve Vanover on his recent appointment. During Chief Vanover’s almost two decades career with Sharonville, he has served as a Patrol Officer, DARE Officer, Detective Sergeant, Patrol Lieutenant, Patrol Commander, and most recently as the Support Services Commander. Expect to see him around the community as he takes on this new role leading our police forces.

Finally, who says that work and enjoyment are mutually exclusive? Not those who serve you as employees of the City of Sharonville. Ohio Business Magazine chose the City of Sharonville as one of the 50 Best Workplaces in the State of Ohio. We are the first and only municipality ever to receive this honor. As you enjoy the summer here in Sharonville, please help me thank these great men and women who help make you proud of your hometown.

Kevin M. Hardman

A Great Place To Work!

We are thrilled to announce that the City of Sharonville has been chosen as a 2018 recipient of Ohio Business Magazine’s 50 Best Workplaces Award! Sharonville is the first, and only, municipality to have received this honor.

This award recognizes organizations with competitive and strong company cultures; excellent employee benefit structures, company employee-relations and community involvement; and supported memberships, achievements, and awards.

Thank you to Sharonville Mayor Kevin Hardman for his leadership; all of the other elected officials for their continued support and guidance; and our City employees for their dedicated service to the community.

The City, along with the other top workplaces, will be featured in the summer issue of Ohio Business Magazine!
Veterans residing in the City of Sharonville, along with one guest, are invited to join Sharonville Officials for a morning of gratitude because of your service to our nation.

Front Yard Agricultural Gardens in Residential Zoned Areas

In an effort to address concerns about front yard gardens, the City recently adopted zoning guidelines for residents who desiring to utilize portions of their front yards for “agricultural purposes”. The City of Sharonville Zoning Ordinance defines Agriculture as cultivated tracts of land, or raised beds containing single or multiple varieties of vegetables, fruits, berries, or any other edible or otherwise consumable agricultural product or produce. The zoning guidelines stipulate that front yard gardens devoted to agriculture can only extend 10 feet beyond the front building wall of a dwelling toward the street. In addition, the front yard garden is limited to one-hundred (100) square feet in size. The examples above show a hypothetical violation and the area that could be utilized for front yard garden on a typical residential lot that complies with zoning guidelines. If you have any questions about zoning guidelines for front yard agricultural gardens please call 563-0033.

Sharonville Residents Recycled 678 Tons in 2017
Because What We Do Matters

Congratulations to all the residents who recycled in 2017. On average, each household in Sharonville recycled 330 pounds – that’s 14.29% of all waste collected in Sharonville in 2017. Sharonville’s recycling efforts:

The more everyone recycles the better for our environment and economy. The City of Sharonville understands and believes in the importance of recycling. For that reason, the City offers curb side collection of recyclables as a FREE SERVICE to its residents.

If you are currently recycling, THANK YOU - Keep up the Great Work! Want a larger recycling container (95 gal) - Call Rumpke Recycling at 1-800-582-3107. If you are not currently recycling, please reconsider and call Rumpke to get your free recycling container.

New Police Chief

Congratulations to Steve Vanover, Sharonville’s new Chief of Police. Chief Vanover was sworn in on March 20, 2018. Since 1999, Chief Vanover has served the City of Sharonville in a number of different capacities: Patrol Officer, DARE Officer, Detective Sergeant, Patrol Lieutenant, Patrol Commander, and most recently as the Support Services Commander. Join us in congratulating Chief Vanover as he steps forward to proudly represent and support our Police Department! Chief Vanover can be contacted by phone at 563-1147 or email at svanover@cityofsharonville.com.

2017 Police Officer and Civilian Employee of the Year

Each year the Sharonville Police Department names a Police Officer of the Year and a Civilian Employee of the Year. The awards recognize the outstanding employee contributions made during the previous year. The award winners are nominated and chosen by their co-workers.

Officer Nick Caplinger was chosen as the 2017 Police Officer of the Year. Nick joined the department in June of 2008 and has served as a patrol officer, field training officer, department instructor, and recently was named to the detective division. Nick is involved in multiple committees including hiring and the design of our new police department. Nick is described by his co-workers as being compassionate and professional making him an ideal or model officer. Nick currently lives on the west side of Cincinnati with his wife, Abby.

Dispatcher Miranda Oursler was chosen as the 2017 Civilian Employee of the Year. Miranda joined the department in February of 2016 and currently serves as the second shift dispatcher. Miranda’s co-workers describe her as bringing a wonderful, positive energy and passion to the department and she is a welcome addition. Miranda’s interaction with the public and other employees is a great example for others. Miranda currently lives in Morrow with her husband, Caleb, and their two children, Audrey and Barrett.

The summer time is also the time that people tend to leave their garage door open. This, for some people, is apparently an invitation to walk into your garage and help themselves to your things. We understand that it is more convenient for you to leave the garage door open. You may be working in the yard; the kids are going in and out getting a bike or their baseball gear. Bear in mind that on occasion we have received reports of someone entering a garage and removing items. Recently we have had an incident where we caught a teenager who had entered a garage and removed alcohol from the refrigerator.

Try to make it part of your evening routine to make sure that your garage door is closed, before going to bed. You don’t want to make it easy for someone to steal from you. If it is late and you happen to notice that your neighbor has left their garage door open, be a good neighbor and give them a call to let them know.

Vacation Travel Safety Tips

If you are going on vacation or will be away from your home for an extended period of time, here are some simple steps that you can take that will hopefully make your return home uneventful:

• Have the post office stop mail delivery and / or ask a neighbor to check your mail just in case the post office does deliver while you are away.

• Use timers on your lights and have them set in different rooms at different times.

• Ask a neighbor to pick up any papers that may be delivered and keep an eye on your house. Leave a phone number where you can be reached or where a family member can be reached. It is important that you are able to be reached if there is an emergency to your property or the house alarm malfunctions.

• Ask a neighbor to occasionally park one of their cars in your drive way while you are away.

• Submit a “vacation watch” form to the police department. This can be done at the Sharonville Police Department or on the city’s web site at www.sharonville.org.

Don't let a bad seat eclipse a great event! Our theatre last had a seating upgrade almost a decade ago. To make matters worse, the seats obtained were second hand and had already seen their best days. Now, after cushioning many thousands of patrons, the seats in our theatre are begging for a break!

We're committed to giving the beautiful historic community theatre it's much-deserved upgrade by purchasing newer, more comfortable seating, so that our more than 1000 monthly patrons can continue to enjoy family friendly events for many years.

But, we need your help!

Your financial gift in any amount will help us achieve our goal of installing new seats in the Sharonville Cultural Arts Center before summer ends. With your help, we can make our dream of upgraded seating a reality!
